- (Total: 20 marks)

QUESTION TWO

- (a) Explain five conditions under which the law may recognise as valid a meeting held in more than one venue. (10 marks)
- (b) Mr. Onyango and Mr. Simba hold between them 27% of the ordinary shares of Ujamaa Ltd. On 2 May 2015, they deposited at the company's registered office a requisition of an extraordinary general meeting stating as its agenda the removal of all directors and the approval of a reduction in capital by one million shillings. On 20 May 2015, the directors decided to convene the meeting on 4 September 2015.

At the meeting, an amendment was proposed whereby only the finance director was to be removed from office. This amendment was carried with the chairperson exercising a casting vote. The removal of the finance director was subsequently voted on in a poll which had been demanded by Mr. Onyango and Mr. Simba. 57% of the votes cast were in favour of the finance director's removal including 8% of proxy votes which had been deposited at the company's registered office thirty six hours before the meeting. On the vote for a reduction in capital, 61% of the votes cast were in favour of the resolution.

Required:

Discuss the validity of the above events in the context of the law and procedure of company meetings. The articles of association of Ujamaa Ltd. are in the form of Table A. (10 marks)
